THE DELINQUENT LANDS OF THE STATE. The Senate has passed a bill authorizing the sale of the lands delinquent for non-payment of taxes since the 10th of April, 1865. It amends and perfects the laws now in force so as to provide for the sale of lands already delinquent annually till the present lists are completed, and thereafter regularly every three years. The bill requires every land-holder to see that his lands are placed on the proper land-books, and when notified that they are not so entered, and are allowed to remain of for a period of five years, they become liable to reentry. The Commonwealth can only purchase once; on the second sale lands may be sold for whatever may be bid. The sections of the bill are so arranged as to make it a permanent law, and to render amendments hereafter unnecessary. A companion bill passed the Senate a few days ago, which releases all the taxes on forfeited lands heretofore purchased by the Commonwealth, upon the payment of all taxes due thereon since 1865.

He promptly notified one of the who were present was very evident, and dupolicemen, who caused the alarm to be turned in at the station-house. The Fire Department turned out with its usual promptness, but the flames had been extinguished with buckets of water, and the services of the firemen were not needed. Damage trifling.

DEATH OF MR. GEORGE BAGBY .- Intelligence has been received in this city of the death of Mr. George Bagby, which occurred on the 17th, in Tappahannock, in the seventy-fifth year of his age. Mr. Bagby was once a merchant of this city, and was the father of Dr. George W. Bagby, Assistant State Librarian. At the close of the war be removed to Tappahannock to reside with his son-in-law, Mr. James M. Matthews, now a resident of this city. Mr. Bagby had many warm friends who will mourn his loss.

The sale of reserved seats for the concert for the relief of the poor, to take place at Assembly Hall on Tuesday night, will commence at the bookstore of West, Johnston

& Co. this morning. There is every promise that the concert will prove a success financially and musically. The first rehearsal took place last night, and Mr. Wheat and his assistants made gratifying progress in the practice of the pieces to be presented on the occasion. Every dollar realized from the proceeds will be devoted by the Richmond Relief Committee to the relief of the worthy poor of this city. The programme will be found in our advertising columns, under the head of amusements.

ST. VINCENT DE PAUL'S CONFERENCE .-This Conference composed of most of a number of gentlemen of St. Peter's cathedral congregation, with Mr. John Ahern as president, is an organization instituted to aid the poor regardless of creed, and its charities are dispensed quietly and unostentatiously. Last year the Conference distributed $518. This year, however, the demands upon its resources groceries, &c., have already amounted to afford is one that none should fail to enjoy.

> THE THEATRE - MISS LE CLERCO .-- The au dience at the Theatre last night was quite small, but nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of the entertainment. One would have been sadly disappointed at not being greeted by a full house on her benefit night, but if she was her very appreciative audience did with unusual spirit, and responded graceshe received. Her great desire to please those ring the entire evening she played as though there was not an empty seat in the house. The play was the dramatization of Wilkie Collins's "New Magdalen." It was splendidly presented, and when rendered to a large audience would create a favorable impression indeed. Miss Le Clercq improves considerably upon acquaintance. She is one of the best actresses we have had here this winter, and it is to be regretted that she has not had better bouses.

This afternoon "East Lynne" will be played at the matince.

Mr. Sothern comes to Richmond with a fine reputation, and if we may judge him by the very complimentary criticisms which have appeared in all of the New York papers, he will have overwhelming andiences during not confined to this country. The London press have with one accord pronounced him wonderful actor in his line. Punch said, while Mr. Sothern was in London, that they who wish to see a new type of a swell quite different from any that the stage before has shown them, should go and have a laugh at Mr. Sothern's "Lord Dundreary." For quaint and quiet humor nothing can excel his vacuous solemnity. His attitudes are natural, and his humor new and fresh; while, despite of all his funny and fantastic caricaturing, there is a something true to nature in is almost every touch. Mr. Lytton Sothern arrived in the city yesterday morning. During the day he was busy making arrangements for the appearance of his father at the Theatre next

HON. MR. WADDELL'S LECTURE.-This lecture upon the "Discovery of America before Columbus," will be delivered at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association on Monday night, instead Tuesday night, as heretofore announced. This change has been made because the ladies of the Second Presbyterian church are unwilling to interfere with the concert given for the poor of our city, which is announced for Tuesday night. They bespeak for Mr. Waddell a full house.

RAMBLE FROM BRISTOL TO THE SEA .- The April No. of Scribner's monthly (for sale by J. T. Ellyson, 1112 Main street,) contains an interesting article with this title by Mr. Edward King, who spent several weeks in Richmond last summer. Mr. King writes most entertainingly of scenes on the line of the Atlantie, Mississippi and Ohio railroad, and incidentally describes an interesting negro revival meeting which he attended at Half-Way station, on the Richmond and Petersburg railroad.

THE NEW RESERVOIR .- The excavation and work upon the new reservoir was commenced on Wednesday.

[For the Dispatch.]

Too Much Confidence in "Nig." Under the old United States law, when negroes were slaves, a negro was forbid to bave any charge whatever of the mails. Not so now. It may be said that now the negro has almost the whole charge of the mails. It is not strange that mail robberies should be frequent and large, when such stupid and irresponsible creatures as the man Andrew Harris has unquestioned free entre to the mailing-table" of the post office. The admission of such a man to the "mailing-table" is unlawful; and while the poor, oolish devil will be fed, clothed, and comforted free of expense to himself at Albany, it is right and proper to look at the crime squarely, and charge that there was gross neglect and culpable fault somewhere among the officials of the post-office that this steal-

A WORTHY OBJECT .- It is the intention of number of the Manchester Elliott Grays to hold a meeting next Wednesday night to organize an association for the purpose of erecting a monument in the City Cemetery to all of the Manchester dead who fell in bat tle or died of wounds or disease contracted in service during the war, and they invite the cooperation of all Confederate soldiers, irrespective of company or regiment. Various gentlemen have consented to lecture for the object. Professors Harding and Maurice will give entertainments; the choirs of the different churches concerts, and all the religious and benevolent orders will contribute.

Five responsible trustees will be appointed, and a monument that will be not only an ornament to the cemetery, but a sad yet appropriate tribute to the "boys in gray,"

The meeting to organize will be held at the Council chamber Wednesday, March 25th, at o'clock P. M., and all interested, particuarly the Elliott Grays, will of course attend. It is proposed to elect at that time a president, two vice-presidents, secretary, and treasurer, who shall also constitute a board of trustees; and it is the intention of the friends of this movement that there shall be no such word as fail.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS. - The Board of Town Trustees have, with the approval of the Street Committee, ordered the following improvements, the contracts for which will be awarded to-day:

Plank sidewalk on Eighth avenue from his stay in this city. But his reputation is Decatur to Everett street. Same on Fifth avenue from Hull to Maury street. A bridge at corner of Fifth and Stockton Chinese Labor_The Financial Quer tion_Cheap Transportation Again_ Contemplated Change in the Treasury Department.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 20. Chinese emigration for the second time this session was before the Senate to-day, it having been brought up by Senator Hagar, of California, who presented the joint resolution of the Legislature of that State, reciting the evils thereof. The whole Pacific coast is up in arms against Chinese cheap labor, and their representatives here are making earnest exertions to have some modification of the Burlingame treaty, so that further influx of the Chinese to our shores may be pie-

Mr. Hagar expiated upon the evils of cheap abor and the immoral practices of the Chinese, and contended that not only the Burlingame treaty but the laws of Congress had been violated in the excessive immigration of Chinese to the Pacific slope.

The financial discussion will be resumed on Monday, baving been made the special order for that day after the morning hour. Senator Sherman, chairman of the Finance Committee, will endeavor to have general debate closed on Tuesday afternoon, and after that time confine the speeches to ten minutes each.

Senator Gordon's bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to endorse the bonds of the Atlantic and Great Western Canal Company was reported adversely to-day. A few days ago Senator Wright introduced a bill in the interest of cheap transportation which provides for the extension of governmental aid to the Atlantic and Great Western, James River and Kanawha, and Niagara canal companies, and this bill madly enthusiastic, cheer upon cheer greetwill probably meet with a better reception than Senator Gordon's, as it contemplates a greater number of routes, and will be warmly advocated by the West and South.

Reports are received that there will soon be a change in the Treasury Department, many members of Congress believing that the report of the committee which has been investigating Sanborn contracts and moiety business will be of such a character as will Disraeli gave notice that the Government positively demand a change in the head of that Department.
